

Wizards and Gelflings

Wizards and Gelflings is a tag game. Wizards are taggers. All others are Gelflings. When tagged Gelflings stand in one spot and hit their fist into the up-turned palm of their other hand calling out in a high voice, "Help me, help me, help me!" Other Gelflings may free a tagged Gelfling by forming a circle of two around the tagged Gelfling holding hands and dancing around the tagged Gelfling saying, "Be free little Gelfling, be free little Gelfling, be free little Gelfling." Gelfling rescuers need to beware that as they are dancing around a frozen Gelfling they are vulnerable and may be tagged by the wizard themselves.
